5-18a. Tattoo and Jewelry Policy

First National Bank of Pasco expects all employees to exercise appropriate judgment with regard to personal appearance, dress and grooming to be most effective in the performance of their workplace duties. In keeping with this approach, FNBP allows reasonable self-expression through personal appearance, unless a) it conflicts with an employee's ability to perform his or her position effectively or with his or her specific work environment, or b) it is regarded as offensive or harassing toward co-workers or others with whom the Bank conducts business and has contact with employees.

Procedures

Visible tattoos and some types of jewelry/piercings (such as gauges) are generally not considered acceptable in a banking environment; however, exceptions may be made on a case by case basis at the sole discretion of Executive management, whose determination will be deemed final. Factors that Executive Management will consider to determine whether jewelry or tattoos may pose a conflict with the employee's job or work environment include:

1. Offensiveness to co-workers, customers, vendors or others in the workplace based on racial, sexual, religious, ethnic, or other characteristics or attributes of a sensitive or legally protected nature.
2. Corporate or societal norms.
3. Customer complaints.

If Executive Management determines an employee's jewelry or tattoos may present such a conflict, the employee will be encouraged to identify appropriate options, such as removal of excess or offensive jewelry, covering of tattoos, transfer to an alternative position, or other reasonable means to resolve the conflict.
